    b. Discussion was held by the members about the funding request from the FCC EDU 1101 class for a Cultural Diversity Trip to Chicago. The members requested that Dean Goldman provided an itemized list of the expenses related to the trip and convey the ISAB funding priorities to the course instructor. The request is tabled to the November 17th ISAB meeting for further consideration.

5. Chancellor Taylor facilitated a discussion with the members about student engagement on our campuses. Discuss included communication strategies, timing of events during WoW, student organization/club recruitment events and participation in sponsoring WoW events, promotion of ISAB was also discussed. This discussion will continue at the November ISAB meeting with suggestions to be communicated to the Student Affairs Division.

6. Student Organization and Clubs – Policy and Procedures discussion was a continuation from the discussion that was held on 9/15/26. Dean Goldman provided the members with a draft of a policy and procedure for Student Organizations and Clubs along with a memorandum in support of both. Members were asked to review this information for further discussion at the 11/17/2027 meeting. Dean Goldman is also working on a draft of a Student Organizations and Clubs handbook. ISAB is still in need of a mission and/or purpose statement. This is all part of ISAB's efforts to establish a comprehensive and consistent framework for student organizations and clubs across IECC.

7. Next meeting: Tuesday, November 17, 2026 at Wabash Valley College Learning Commons at 4 p.m.
