HEALTH AWARENESS DAY

To call attention to the importance of personal health and safety, Lincoln Trail College hosted a free Health Awareness Day for the public Feb. 8 in Williams Hall. The event featured 25 booths focusing on: blood sugar and blood pressure testing, stress management, hearing and eye protection, electrical safety, proper lifting techniques, chiropractic services, patient rights, organ donation, dental awareness, nutrition and healthy cooking, and more.

The sky is the limit this spring

LTC is flying high this spring with two aeronautics classes taught at the Robinson Community Airport.

Howard Hunt will teach flying through aviation with Basics of Flying II (TRA 1611) offered from 6 to 8 p.m. Wednesdays Feb. 22 through May 9. The course will emphasize basic airport technology and operation, as well as basic airplane instrumentation and operation.

In-district students registered in 4 evening credit hours or less who register for after 6 p.m. courses may qualify for an After-6 p.m. tuition discount.

To register, call Admissions at 618-544-8657, ext. 1097.

Fall semester honors list

Lincoln Trail College has released its academic honor lists for the Fall 2011 semester. Three lists have been established by Illinois Eastern Community Colleges to indicate students who have achieved academic excellence. They are: the Chief Executive Officer's Academic Honors List, the President's Academic Honors List, and the Dean's Academic Honors List.

To qualify for any of the honor lists, a student must be enrolled full-time (12 hours or more) and must be taking college-level classes.

To be named to the Chief Executive Officer's Academic Honors List, students must achieve a term grade-point average of 3.90 or greater on a 4.00 scale; for the President's Academic Honors List, between 3.75 and 3.89; and for the Dean's Academic Honors List, between 3.50 and 3.74.

LTC celebrates Vegas homecoming

Lincoln Trail College celebrated Homecoming Saturday, Feb. 18.

The homecoming games kicked off the festivities, with the women's and men's basketball teams battling Kaskaskia at 2 and 4 p.m., respectively, in the gym.

A Las Vegas-theme dance for LTC students was conducted from 7 p.m. to midnight in the LTC cafeteria.

Free computer help available

The public computer lab at LTC announces its new hours: 12:30 to 6:30 p.m. Mondays and Wednesdays and 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Tuesdays.

The computer lab is free for public use and employs a part-time instructor who will assist visitors with beginning computer skills, as well as with the use of Illinois WorkNet and Illinois Legal Aid Online websites. Appointments are not required and all services are offered free of charge. Individualized lessons are available in one-on-one sessions with the instructor. Stop by once for a simple refresher course, or schedule sessions as needed to update skills.

Below are just a few of the things available through the computer lab:

- Enhance employment potential
- Search job postings, apply online, and learn job skills with Illinois WorkNet
- Learn basic computer skills (typing, Microsoft Word, Microsoft Excel, and more!)
- Search for legal help on Illinois Legal Aid Online
- Communicate with friends and family online
- Share digital photos through email and social networking sites
- Search for information using the internet
- Create documents

For more information, call 618-544-8657, ext. 1412, or drop in during lab hours. The lab is located in the back of the LTC library. For more information on LTC, visit www.facebook.com/lincolntrailcollege or www.twitter.com/ltc_il.

MORNING GLOW

LTC's fountain glows in the morning sunlight.

LTC to host Prom Expo

Get the scoop on the latest in prom fashions and services during Lincoln Trail College's first Prom Expo Feb. 19.

Featured from 1 to 3 p.m. in the LTC gym will be area hair and nail technicians, jewelry and flower shops, tuxedo rental and other prom and post-prom event vendors. The vendor fair will be followed by a 3 p.m. prom fashion show with local models and fashions by Lucia's Bridals of Terre Haute and Second Chance to Dance in the LTC theater. Freewill donations will be accepted for the fashion show, with proceeds benefiting Second Chance to Dance, a prom dress giveaway organized by Chasity Bogard.

Door prizes will be awarded during the course of the expo.
