Ensemble completes spring tour

LTC's Statesmen Singers vocal ensemble recently performed at the Grand Ole Opry.

The Grand Ole Opry showcases students through its Music City Performance Program. Groups perform for Opry patrons for 20 minutes prior to attending the world's longest running radio show.

"Being able to showcase talented students from across the country is very rewarding and fosters excellence in their music development curriculum" said Jamie Lynn Thompson, sales manager, Grand Ole Opry Entertainment Group.

The Grand Ole Opry presents the country music live every week from Nashville, Tenn., and is heard on WSM-AM, SIRIUS XM Satellite Radio and opry.com.

The visit was just one stop on the group's spring tour. The group also performed in local venues in Memphis, Indianapolis and Evansville.
