TRIATHLON AT LTC ON MAY 15

Lincoln Trail College and Crawford Memorial Hospital are currently planning the Crawford County Triathlon to be conducted this spring.

A 175-yard swim will kick off the event at 8 a.m. May 15 in the LTC pool. It will be followed by a 12-mile bicycle ride and a 3-mile run. The competition is limited to 150 swimmers who will compete in the following male and female age groups: 18 to 29, 30 to 39, 40 to 49, 50 to 59, and 60 and older. Participants may compete individually or as a team.

Triathlon participant packet distribution and body marking will be from 4 to 6 p.m. Saturday, May 14, 2011, in the LTC cafeteria. Check-in will be from 6:30 to 7:30 a.m. on race day, May 15, in the LTC cafeteria.

Individual entry fee is $50 in advance or $60 after April 29. Team entries are $75. Entry forms – available by calling 618-544-8657, ext. 1130 – may be sent to Lincoln Trail College, Attention: Roselene Quick, 11220 State Hwy. 1, Robinson, IL 62454.

Proceeds from the event will benefit Crawford CountyFood Pantries.

RAIN BARREL INSTALLATION

JAMES JONES LINCOLN TRAIL CREATIVE WRITING AWARD

Area residents with an interest in creative writing have an opportunity to win $500 as part of the James Jones Lincoln Trail Creative Writing Contest.

Submissions must be original, at least 1,500 words, typed and include the required cover page. The author's name is to appear on the cover page only, not on the manuscript. All pages are to be numbered and include the short story title on the top

To be considered for the award, writers must be: a high school senior or at least 18 years old or older officially residing in Crawford or Clark County, Ill.; or an LTC graduate. Students who have already earned LTC credit, high school seniors graduating this spring who will attend LTC at least part-time during the next academic year and current LTC students are particularly encouraged to enter their stories.

Applicants cannot have been published professionally (meaning received payment).

Submissions must be turned in to Danelle Hevron in the LTC Marketing Office no later than June 30, 2011. Cover pages are available from the LTC Eagleton Learning Resource Center, area high school English teachers, Robinson Public Library, other Crawford County libraries, Clark County high schools, Marshall Public Library and online at www.jamesjonesliterarysociety.org. JJLS reserves the right not to award the $500 should there be an insufficient number of entries or no entry is judged acceptable.

FIRST GED COMMENCEMENT AT LTC

Lincoln Trail College honored students who received their GED certificates this year with a ceremony held on April 27. Pictured are graduates Miranda Steinman, Matthew Deckard, Julia Ammerman, and Rena Gower: Director of the Learning Skills Center. A total of eight students have received their certificate this year. Lincoln Trail College offers GED preparation classes at no cost to the student. Sessions run for eight weeks, with summer classes starting June 7.

PERFORMING ARTS NEWS

The Lincoln Trail College Statesmen Singers (pictured on right), directed by Yvonne Newlin, practiced some of their selections for the residents of Cotillion Ridge recently. The Statesmen Singers took part in the music department's annual Spring Music Extravaganza on April 16. The group will also sing during LTC's 41st Commencement Ceremony on May 13.

Students in Barb

Shimer's acting class showed off their talents in the annual "Evening of Scenes" on May 5 in the Zwermann Arts Center Theater.

This year's Children's Theater summer production, "Annie Jr.," is open to youth ages 6 through high school freshmen (age 14). The workshop will run from mid-June to mid-July. The production is under the direction of Sam Mikeworth.
