

LTC NETWORK

NOVEMBER 2011

- 1 Men's basketball hosts Three Rivers, 7 p.m.
- 2 College Day, 9-11 a.m., gym
- 4 Testing & advising, 9-11 a.m., Williams Hall
Men's basketball hosts Summit Christian, 7 p.m.
- 5 Survival Training for Babysitters & Latchkey Kids, 8 a.m.-3 p.m., WH114
Fall concert, 7 p.m., theater
- 6 Time changes, move clocks back one hour
Men's basketball hosts Summit Christian, 3 p.m.
- 8 LTC Foundation meeting, 5:30 p.m., Lincoln Room
- 9 Women's basketball hosts State Fair, 5:30 p.m.
- 10 Men's basketball hosts New Creations, 7 p.m.

Network is a joint project of Lincoln Trail College & Lincoln Trail College Foundation

Mission Accomplished

Pharmacy Technician instructor Annika McConn congratulates a student during the recent health occupations pinning. Eighteen pharmacy technician, medical assistant and health information management participated in the ceremony.

'12 Angry Men' tickets available

Lincoln Trail College theater director Barbara Shimer has announced the cast for the college's fall production of "12 Angry Men."

This powerful story of a jury deliberation in an open-and-shut murder trial was originally written for television and starred Henry Fonda, Lee J. Cobb and E.G. Marshall among others.

LTC's production features John Sutfin, Andrew Schroeder, Benjamin Kennedy, Lonnie Devin, Joseph Stambaugh, Tom Compton, Tom Brown, Andrew Hill, John Arabatgis, Ken Strieby, Tom Moore and Phil Thorsen as the jurors; Justin Richards as the guard; and Mark Shaner as the judge.

Tickets will be available to LTC Theater Angels beginning Sept. 26 and to the public beginning Sept. 28. Performances are at 7 p.m. Oct. 14 and 15 and 2 p.m. Oct. 16.

For tickets, or more information, call 618-544-8657, ext. 1433.

LTC celebrates Adult Education and Family Literacy Week

Students currently enrolled in Lincoln Trail College's Adult Basic Education and General Educational Development classes celebrated Adult Education and Family Literacy Week, Sept. 12-18.

Activities included: instructor recognition, campus tours, technical/transfer presentations for students, continental breakfast for students, and presentations by area GED students.

LTC offers ABE and GED classes tuition-free to prepare students for the GED exam. Day and evening classes are offered in an eight-week format.

Dedicated Instructors

LTC instructors Justin Musselwhite and Cheryl Parker were recently recognized by the college for their dedication to student success. Musselwhite has taught ABE/GED classes at LTC since 2007, and Parker has taught ABE/GED courses at LTC since 2006.

Midsemester ABE courses planned

Lincoln Trail College will offer the following classes the second eight weeks of the fall semester.

Parenting Education (ABE 0734) will be offered from 5:30 to 7:15 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays beginning Oct. 18. This course will emphasize the role of parents in their child's basic emotional, educational and social needs.

Job Preparational Skills I (ABE 0718), which meets from 5 to 6:10 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays beginning Oct. 18, will help students hone their skills filling out job applications, writing cover letters, writing resumes, and mastering interviews.

Career-minded students will benefit from Career Development (ASE 0814). This class, which meets from 5 to 6:10 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays beginning Oct. 18, will focus on career development and planning, including self-awareness, job search strategies, decision making, and awareness of workplace issues. Students will develop skills that can lead to achieving personal goals and career success.

These free Adult Education classes are only available for those who meet program requirements. To find out if you qualify, or for more information, call 618-544-8657, ext. 1134.

- 11 College closed for Veterans' Day Seven Bridges Concert, 7:30 p.m., theater
- 12 Men's basketball hosts South Suburban, 4 p.m.
- 15 Testing & advising, 2-4 p.m., WH
- 18 Women's basketball hosts Parkland, 6 p.m.
- 20 Concert Choir performance, 2 p.m., theater
- 22 Women's basketball hosts St. Louis, 5:30 p.m.
- 24 College closed for Thanksgiving Break
- 28 High School Art Show reception, 7-9 p.m., cafeteria
- 29 Men's basketball hosts Aim High Prep, 7 p.m.

Golf outing

LTC will have a golf outing/fund-raiser Oct. 22 at Quail Creek Country Club.

The four-person scramble will begin at 11 a.m. Cost is $60, with proceeds to benefit LTC athletics. The college is also looking for event sponsors.

For more information, contact Kevin Bowers at 618-544-8657, ext. 1208.

Working Women

LTC recently recognized its working women. The advertisement will run in the Robinson Daily News on Oct. 18.

---

Self-defense for women class Oct. 20

Lincoln Trail College will offer a self-defense class for women on Oct. 20.

Michael Howard will lead this course which emphasizes prevention, awareness, verbal confrontation, attack, and exit. Howard will also demonstrate useful self-defense techniques.

The $25 course will meet from 6 to 8 p.m. in the Activity Annex on North Campus. To register, or for more information, call Community Service at 618-544-8657, ext. 1130. Lincoln Trail College was recently recognized as one of the top 120 community colleges in the nation by the Aspen Institute for its completion rates and academic and workforce outcomes.

LTC hosts Community Night

To thank the community for its support, Lincoln Trail College hosted a Community Night Oct. 6 on main campus. The event was co-sponsored by First National Bank, Farmers & Merchants Bank in Hutsonville, First Financial Bank, Regions Bank, and First Robinson Savings Bank.

The evening of activities included a free spaghetti dinner in the cafeteria; inflatable games in the gym; open swim in the pool; and a variety of games inside and outside. The event was open to all ages. All games and activities were free.

Those attending were eligible to win door prizes and canned goods were collected for area food pantries.

Lutes is new LTC percussion instructor

Kyle Lutes has been named a member of Lincoln Trail College's adjunct music faculty.

The percussionist, educator and composer received a bachelor's of music education from Indiana State University and is currently pursuing a master's degree in percussion performance from ISU. At ISU, he performs with the Wind Orchestra, University Orchestra, Percussion Ensemble, and Steel Band. He has studied with Jimmy Finnie, Craig Hetrick, Lee Howard Stevens, Jon Dicenso, Heather Sloan and Jonathon Higgens.

Outside of the university setting, Lutes has played with the Terre Haute Symphony Orchestra and performs as a freelance percussionist and drum set artist. In addition to large ensembles, he has played solo marimba and percussion, chamber music, rudimental drumming, and non-western percussion music.

Lutes, an active educator in Indiana, teaches private lessons and works with students in the middle schools, high schools and at the university. He is a member of the Percussion Arts Society, Indiana Music Educators Association, and The National Society for Music Educators.

To schedule a lesson with Lutes, call the LTC Performing Arts Office, 618-544-8657, ext. 1433, Monday through Friday between 8 a.m. and 3 p.m.