EDITOR'S NOTE

As winter's chill settles over our campus, it's a reminder of the resilience and dedication that define Wabash Valley College. Despite the cold and occasional inclement weather, our commitment to delivering exceptional education and services remains unwavering. We have comprehensive emergency preparedness plans in place to ensure the safety of our students and staff, including protocols for emergency closings when necessary.

Our mission is to improve the lives of our students and strengthen our communities. This mission propels us forward, regardless of the season. We encourage our students to embrace the opportunities that each day brings, knowing that the warmth of knowledge and the support of our community can outshine any winter storm.

Stay safe, stay engaged, and let's continue to make this season a time of growth and achievement.

REELIN' 'EM IN!

The winter chill hasn't slowed down Coach Todd Gill, who's been hard at work bringing in fresh talent for the 2025-26 WVC Bass Team. Since the winter break, Coach Gill has added promising recruits to the team including Zac Corell, Colten Starnes, Wyatt Stamper, Grayson Wilson, Cooper Lobek, and Will Cali.

Despite the cold weather, Coach Gill has kept the momentum going, showcasing the strength of the program and the opportunities available at WVC.

With a strong lineup coming together, the future looks bright for the WVC Bass Team. It's clear that no matter the season, Coach Gill is always reeling in success. 🔥

WVC SEEKS STUDENT TRUSTEE

Illinois Eastern Community Colleges (IECC) is now accepting applications for the prestigious position of Student Trustee to the IECC Board of Trustees for the 2025-2026 academic year. The selected student will serve as a vital voice for the student body across all four IECC campuses, including Frontier Community College, Lincoln Trail College, Olney Central College, and Wabash Valley College. The Student Trustee acts as the liaison between the student body and the Board, advocating for student interests and concerns. Additionally, the trustee serves as the president of the IECC Student Advisory Board, further fostering communication and collaboration among the campuses.

This leadership opportunity rotates annually among the four campuses, and the upcoming term's Student Trustee will be elected from Wabash Valley College. The one-year term begins with the April Board of Trustees meeting and concludes in March 2026.

Eligibility Requirements:

To declare candidacy, students must meet the following criteria:

- Completion of at least fifteen (15) credit hours at IECC.
- Enrollment as a full-time student (minimum of twelve (12) credit hours) throughout the term of office.
- Good academic standing with a minimum GPA of 2.0.
- Good conduct standing with no violations.
- Financial good standing with IECC (no outstanding account balances).

The election will take place by March 1, 2025, and interested students are encouraged to begin their campaign preparations now.

How to Learn More:

For detailed information about the application process and campaign rules, please contact Cassandra Goldman, Dean of Students, at goldmanc@iecc.edu.

This is a unique opportunity for a WVC student to develop leadership skills, represent their peers, and play an integral role in shaping the future of IECC. If you're ready to make an impact, consider running for this esteemed position!

EMPLOYEE SPOTLIGHT

Terrance McGee, Head Coach, Men's Basketball

Wabash Valley College's men's basketball head coach, Terrance McGee, is currently in the middle of his second season, working hard to shape not just athletes but future leaders. Originally from Milwaukee, WI, Coach McGee brings over 13 years of collegiate coaching experience to the Warrior program. With a deep passion for the game and a clear vision for his players' success, he's focused on more than just wins—he's building character.

When asked about what he hopes to get out of his team this season, McGee said, "I want them to become better men, graduate, and be good citizens. Those are values I work to instill in them every day. I want to see them impact lives in a positive way." His approach reflects a dedication to not only their performance on the court but also their personal growth and future contributions to society.

Outside of basketball, Coach McGee has a love for Mexican food and enjoys relaxing to the smooth sounds of R&B. His favorite childhood memories revolve around family gatherings at BBQs and Christmas celebrations, moments that have shaped his appreciation for community and togetherness.

With his guidance, WVC's men's basketball team isn't just learning how to play—they're learning how to lead, give back, and strive for excellence in all areas of life. Coach McGee's impact goes far beyond the hardwood, making him a valued member of the WVC family. 🔥

BEER BONES BBQ BINGS FLAVOR TO THE WARRIOR GRILL

There's a new reason to visit Wabash Valley College on Tuesdays and Wednesdays—Beer Bones BBQ has officially taken over the Warrior Grill! Owner Brandon Patterson is excited to serve up delicious, slow-smoked barbecue to both students and the local community.

Patterson, who once helped in the Warrior Grill kitchen years ago, is no stranger to the space. Now, he's back with his own scratch-made menu, offering a variety of flavorful options. While pulled pork and mac & cheese will be staples, other protein options and sides will rotate daily to keep things fresh and exciting.

"I'm looking forward to seeing students try the food for the first time and come back for more," Patterson shared. He's eager for the foot traffic and the chance to introduce Beer Bones BBQ to a wider audience.

The Warrior Grill is open to everyone on Tuesdays and Wednesdays from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Whether you're a BBQ lover or simply looking for a tasty lunch, Beer Bones BBQ promises a meal you won't want to miss! 🔥
