Definitions and Data Sourcing

Definitions:

- Fall Cohorts (IPEDS Definition): Groups of students who enroll at a postsecondary institution for the first time during the fall semester of a given academic year. These cohorts consist of full-time, first-time degree or certificate-seeking student-athletes, with outcomes such as retention, graduation, and transfer rates tracked over time.
- Student-Athletes Receiving Aid: This report includes only student-athletes who have received financial aid specifically for athletic participation.
- All Other Sports: Refers to student-athletes participating in Volleyball, Men's Soccer, Women's Soccer, Softball, and Golf. This grouping provides comprehensive outcome data beyond sports analyzed individually.

Data Sourcing:

The data used in this report comes from:

- IECC's E1 Data Submissions: Internal data submitted annually to the Illinois Community College Board (ICCB) that tracks fall enrollment.
- ICCB Microdata: Data submitted to the ICCB and subsequently reported to the Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS).
