Robbins Schwartz

"Deliberate Indifference Standard" Under Title IX

47

College Response: Definitions

Complainant:

Robbins Schwartz

- 3. Discuss and offer supportive measures.
- 4. Explain the process for filing a formal complaint.

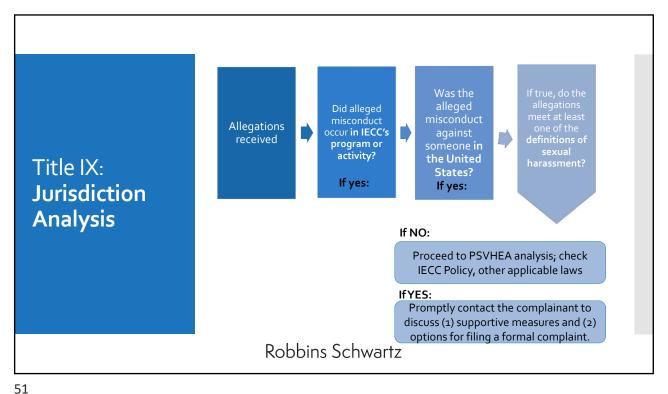

Robbins Schwartz

49

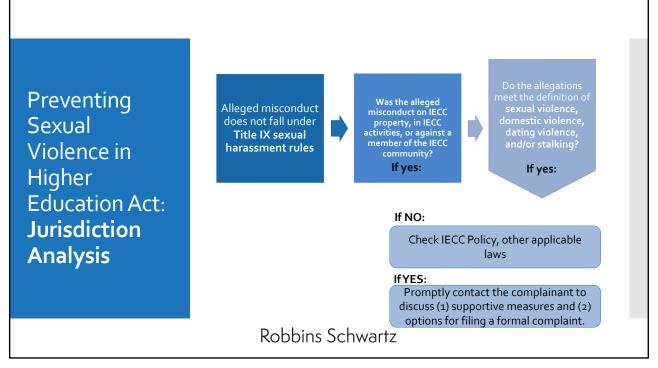

College Response Process

- •Step 1: Analyze the Report.
 - Does Title IX apply?
 - Does the Preventing Sexual Violence in Higher Education Act apply?

Robbins Schwartz

٦.

IECC Response Process

- •Step 2: Contact the complainant.
 - "Complainant" is defined as the individual who is alleged to be the victim of alleged sex-based misconduct

Robbins Schwartz

53

IECC Response Process

- •Step 3: Discuss and offer supportive measures.
 - Individualized services reasonably available that are non-punitive, nondisciplinary, and not unreasonably burdensome to the other party

Robbins Schwartz

55

Robbins Schwartz

Grievance Process for Formal Complaints

Formal complaint:

- Document filed by a complainant or signed by Title IX Coordinator alleging
 - (a) sexual harassment in violation of Title IX and/or
 - (b) sexual violence, domestic violence, dating violence or stalking in violation of the PSVHEA.
- At the time the complainant files a formal complaint, the complainant must be participating in or attempting to participate in IECC's education programs or activities, (either as a student or an employee).

Robbins Schwartz

57

Formal Complaint Hypothetical

A student graduates in June. In mid-July, the former student contacts the Title IX Coordinator to report that she was sexually harassed by another student the previous February. The former student indicates that she would like to file a formal complaint.

- Can the former student file a formal complaint?
- What if the former student is working as a research assistant for the summer?
- In the event the former student cannot file a formal complaint, what options does IECC have?

Robbins Schwartz

Grievance Process: Notice of Allegations

- Must be sent simultaneously to both parties after Title IX Coordinator's receipt of formal complaint.
- Informs the parties of:
 - The grievance process, including informal resolution options
 - The allegations
 - The presumption of non-responsibility on the part of the respondent
 - The parties' right to an advisor

 - The Code of Conduct provisions prohibiting knowingly furnishing false information during the grievance process.

Robbins Schwartz

59

Grievance Process: Emergency Removals and Administrative Leave

- Prior to initiating or completing the grievance process in response to a formal complaint, IECC may remove a respondent from its education program or activity on an emergency basis.
 - Only permitted where IECC has determined, based on an individualized safety and risk analysis, that an immediate threat to the physical health or safety of an individual arising from the allegations of sexual harassment justifies removal.
- IECC must provide the respondent with notice and an opportunity to challenge the decision immediately following the removal.

Robbins Schwartz

Grievance
Process:
Emergency
Removals and Administrative Leave

•IECC may place an employee on administrative leave during the pendency of the grievance process in response to a formal complaint.

Robbins Schwartz

- May occur at any time after the parties receive the initial notice of allegations and prior to a determination regarding responsibility being reached.
- May not be required as condition of:
 - Enrollment/continuing enrollment,
 - Employment or continuing employment,
 - Enjoyment of any right, or

Robbins Schwartz

65

Consolidation of Formal Complaints

•Title IX Coordinator may consolidate formal complaints where the allegations of sex-based misconduct arise out of the same facts or circumstances.

Robbins Schwartz

81

Issues for Hearing

- Hearing Officer's role is to determine:
 - Whether facts presented establish that the alleged conduct occurred;
 - Whether that conduct constitutes Title IX sexual harassment, sexual violence, domestic violence, dating violence or stalking; and
 - If the answers to the above are "yes," which sanctions (if any) and remedies are appropriate.

Conflict of interest:

- "A situation in which the concerns or aims of two different parties or people are incompatible."
 - Not: "I know both parties."

Bias:

 "Prejudice in favor of or against one thing, person, or group compared with another, usually in a way considered to be unfair."

Robbins Schwartz

95

How to Address Implicit Bias

- More deliberate or conscious thinking
 - Sometimes called "Staring" (as opposed to "Blinking")
 - This involves allowing yourself time to fully think through a scenario before coming to a decision/conclusion

Robbins Schwartz

How to Address Bias: Create a Checklist

- Create a checklist beforehand
 - For ex: A pre-made checklist of allegations to be proven/disproven
- Decision-making checklists can encourage less biased decisions; they provide an objective framework to assess your thinking¹
- · Can be effective in overcoming stereotypes²
- Helps reduce the attention given to biased characteristics that may influence decision-making³

Jen, a student, reports to her College advisor that a classmate, Steve, has been making inappropriate sexual jokes and innuendos. She and Steve both attended the same virtual summer school course. They were assigned to work on a project together, much of which was to be done on their own time, over Zoom, and required the exchange of personal contact information. After the project was complete, Steve allegedly called Jen and asked her out. Jen said no. Jen states that Steve began teasing her on social media and telling all of their mutual friends that Jen "is a prude." Robbins Schwartz

Hypothetical

- The teasing became increasingly more offensive, and he allegedly began making false statements that:
 - · Jen is homosexual,
 - She is afraid to date because she is a hermaphrodite, and
 - · That Jen sent him sexually explicit photos.
- Jen alleges that Steve's comments took place over the course of the summer, at various off-campus social distanced class gatherings where the instructor and other students were present.
- Most recently, Steve and Jen both attended the same party at a house owned by the College's Theater Club, of which Jen is a member.
- At the party, Steve (who is 21) was drinking. He tried to pressure Jen (who is 19) into drinking as well. Jen reports that Steve stated, "Some alcohol will allow you to drop your guard, and hopefully, allow me to drop your pants."

Robbins Schwartz

103

Hypothetical

- Jen reports that she told Steve he was not funny, and to leave her alone.
 - One of Jen's friends allegedly witnessed Steve trying to pour some of his vodka into Jen's cup when she wasn't looking.
 - According to Jen's friend, when Steve was caught, he laughed and told her to "Stop cock-blocking me."
- Jen is distraught. Steve is enrolled in two of the same classes as Jen for the fall 2020 semester. Jen is considering dropping the classes so she will not have to interact with Steve.
- The College advisor documents her discussion with Jen. What should the College advisor do with these allegations? Discuss.

Robbins Schwartz

Hypothetical

- Based on these facts, analyze the jurisdiction under Title IX.
- · Reminder:
 - Steve's behavior began after the completion of their virtual project. He teased her via social media.
 - Steve's behavior continued at off-campus events where the instructor and other students were present.
 - Steve's most recent actions were at a house owned by a College-recognized student organization during the first weekend of school.
- Do Steve's actions constitute Title IX sexual harassment?
- · Reminder: Three types of sexual harassment:
 - Quid pro quo harassment by a college employee
 - Unwelcome conduct that a reasonable person would find so severe, pervasive and objectively offensive that it denies a person equal educational access
 - Any instance of sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence or stalking

Robbins Schwartz

105

Hypothetical

- Jen files a formal complaint. The parties proceed to a live hearing.
 - Can Steve's advisor ask Jen if she has ever had a sexual relationship with Steve?
- After a full grievance process, IECC's appointed Hearing Officer (who is close friends with the College advisor to whom Jen made her initial report) finds that Steve is responsible for engaging in Title IX sexual harassment.
 - After receiving the Hearing Officer's determination, Steve feels that the Hearing Officer had a conflict of interest that affected the outcome of the grievance process. He submits an appeal request to the Title IX Coordinator.
- What steps does the Title IX Coordinator need to take with respect to the appeal?
