

Clean Energy Scholarships

Supporting clean energy education through partnerships with colleges and universities in the Ameren Illinois service territory.

About the Scholarship

- Students at qualifying colleges or universities may be eligible for the Clean Energy Scholarship*. Each school has their own scholarship requirements and adhere to their institutional policies and procedures while administering the Ameren Illinois Clean Energy Scholarship.

Examples of Eligible Majors

- > Business, Accounting, Marketing, Communications
- > Engineering: Mechanical, Electrical, Civil, Industrial
- > Automotive Technology, Construction Management
- > General and Teacher Education
- > HVAC, Welding, Manufacturing, Energy Auditing
- > Renewable Energy
- > Data Sciences and Information Technology
- > Physical and Life Sciences
- > Residential and Commercial Electrical
- > Apprenticeship Pathways
- > And many more!

Other Benefits

Students receive:

- Exposure to clean energy careers.
- Access to internship and other employment opportunities with industry partners.
- Professional development and support services.
- Access to clean energy training and certifications.
- Information about other energy-related scholarship opportunities.

Program History

320+
Scholarships
Provided

250+
Students
Awarded

$500,000+
Awarded

*Students must qualify for scholarships according to individual school policies, as well as meet the eligibility criteria for the Clean Energy Scholarship. Scholarships are awarded by schools and not directly through Ameren Illinois.

For a list of current partner schools offering the Clean Energy Scholarship, scan the QR code or visit AmerenIllinoisSavings.com/WFD.